 5. (i) If the awards of second examiner (revelator) is more than the awards of the first examiner subject to a limit of 20% of the maximum marks prescribed for the paper, the same shall be taken as the marks obtained on revaluation. In case the award of the second examiner (revelator) exceeds the above limit of 20% the answer-book shall be referred to a third examiner and the average of the two closest awards shall be taken into account, if the three awards are uniformly spread, then the middle award shall be taken into account.
(ii) (a) If the award of the second examiner (revelator) is less than of the first examiner upto the extent of 5% of the maximum marks prescribed for the paper, the award of the first examiner shall stand.

- (b) In case the award of the second examiner (revelator) is less than that of the first examiner & the decrease is more than 5% but not more than 20% of the maximum marks prescribed for the paper, the average of the two awards shall be taken as the marks of revaluation provided the result of the candidate is not effected adversely, i.e. his division is not changed or he does not get supplementary instead of pass or he does not fail instead of supplementary or he does not fail in an individual paper/subject instead of pass. In such cases the marks shall be decreased to the extent that his result is not affected adversely.
- (c) If the award of the second examiner (revelator) is less than that of the first examiner and the decrease in marks exceeds 20% of the maximum marks prescribed for the paper the answer-book shall be referred to a third examiner and the average of the two closest awards (the middle award in case the three awards are uniformly spread) shall be taken as the marks of revaluation subject to the provision mentioned above in sub-clause (ii) (b).
6. IN CASE A CANDIDATE DOES NOT SUBMIT HIS/HER ORIGINAL MARKS SHEET ALONGWITH THE APPLICATION FORM FOR REVALUATION, HIS/HER APPLICATION SHALL STAND REJECTED.
7. A candidate who is declared eligible for Supplementary Examiner as a result of revaluation shall be permitted to appear at the usual Supplementary Examination or if the same is already over, at the time of next Main Examination. Such a candidate will also be eligible to appear at the next higher examination as a non-collegiate candidate, if such facility exists for the examination concerned.
8. A candidate who becomes eligible to seek admission to the next higher class consequent upon the improvement of his/her result on revaluation in the middle of a session shall be considered eligible for admission to that class within 21 days from the date of communication of the revaluation result but not later than 31st December of the same session. In such cases the attendance shall be counted from the date of admission.
9. Candidate desirous to apply for re-valuation may treat their result as 'no change' "for submission of application forms for appearing at the ensuing examination within due dates. In case their result changes consequent upon re-valuation, the application form submitted by them will be amended accordingly if a request to that effect is made by the candidate.
